

ROBERT H. MOYES, ONE OF THE PIONEERS OF 1868 AND 1869

Robert H. Moyes, pioneer of Ogden, was among the number who witnessed the driving of the golden spike in the railroad tie at Promontory in 1869 which linked the great transcontinental railway across the United States. He vividly remembers the impressive ceremonies which meant so much to the entire west and resulted in the ringing of bells throughout the country, announcing the connection of the Union Pacific and the old Central Pacific lines.

Mr. Moyes had, like the majority of the pioneers of his day, a wide and varied experience and is now among the few who remain to tell their story. He crossed the plains in 1868 to Fort Laramie in an ox team and came from there to Echo on the new railroad and when he stepped off the train at that place he was immediately offered work on the railroad. Mr. Moyes was then a young man a little over 20. He accepted a job as cook in a construction camp at which Perry Nebeker and Warren S. Snow were sub-contractors under John W. Young, son of Brigham Young. He later moved to a camp about one mile west of Promontory. On the day of the driving of the golden spike, Mr. Moyes left camp in time to arrive at Promontory at 1 p. m. at which governors, railroad authorities and men of varied stations in life were present.

The tie in which the golden spike was driven was a varnished one, especially prepared for the occasion and was later taken up and carried to California where it is now kept as a precious historic relic.

Mr. Moyes spent some time in Utah before removing to the camp west of Promontory and sent for his family in the fall of 1868.

Among those whom Mr. Moyes recalls as witnesses at the golden spike ceremonies were Lerin Farr, mayor of Ogden, and Patsy Marley, the fighter. Mr. Moyes was the first cook with the old Utah Central surveying party.

BLOSSOM BONNET FOR GOOD GIRLS

There ought to be just such a bonnet as this one sketched for Fashion Art Magazine—for every flower-faced little girl in the land! Imagine the bewitching beauty of pink cheeks and blue eyes surmounted by this small beehive of white crepe de chine, or crisp organdie folded atop with a tight bouquet of pink silk rosebuds. More rosy buds wander down the sides, festoon the silk chin strap, and reappear in the little nose-gay for the shoulder.

PARENTS - TEACHERS' MEETING AT THE QUINCY SCHOOL

On Thursday afternoon of this week at the Quincy school the Parents-Teachers' organization will meet and everyone who is interested in the work of the pupils and teachers of the school are asked to be present. This will be Quincy Play Day and beginning at one o'clock there will be an exhibit of art, penmanship and academic work to which the mother of students are asked especially to attend. At 2 o'clock the supervised play period will be demonstrated and the physical drill and rhythm work will be shown following.

Later there will be a regular business meeting of the Parents-Teachers' association and Reverend Christian R. Garver will address the assemblage on "The Reading Habit and Selection of Books."

Teachers of the Ogden schools will have a definite answer from the school board on Wednesday evening on the $1000 minimum salary question, this promise being made to the committee of the school teachers' association at the close of a long session last night with the board. A committee of seven from the association met with the school board last night and presented the demands made by the teachers, including a number of items besides the chief one of salaries for the coming year. All concessions asked for, except the matter of salaries, which is therefore in abeyance, were granted and the teachers are confident the school board will grant the salaries.

Subscriptions to Victory Loan Now Over Half Million

The largest subscription to Victory bonds yesterday was recorded at the Utah National bank, which finished the day with a total of $255,750. Forty-four subscribers at this bank made a record of $171,200.

In the city of Ogden yesterday 269 citizens bought bonds, greatly assisting the campaign here and raising a large proportion of the quota. The total, with those either bought or pledged ran to $554,150, not including the railroad subscriptions of $226,150, which brings the grand total to $780,300.

There still remains slightly less than $900,000 of the Ogden quota to be raised and after yesterday's results were totaled the committee appeared confident that Ogden will be able to report to her name when the roll is called next Saturday.

The results yesterday are attributed in no small way to the boy scouts, who started on their final windup campaign last Saturday. They will recanvass the city and some of them have installed themselves in booths on the uptown corners.

The subscriptions were reported as follows:

France aboard the transport George Washington. The homeward movement of troops, Mr. Baker said, is progressing in a most satisfactory manner and he said that the 300,000 a month mark would be reached in June.

Secretary Baker left here April 7 accompanied by Warren Pershing, General Pershing's only son. He visited various points in France where American troops are quartered, going also to the German line where he reviewed the Third army. Speaking briefly on his visit, Secretary Baker said:

"The American army abroad is in splendid condition. The Third army, which I inspected on the German frontier is beyond doubt the best equipped army in the world. It is everything that an army should be in all its departments."

"The men are anxious to get home and we are moving them as rapidly as possible. I expect to see the 300,000-a-month mark reached in June and the one millionth man will embark for home next week."

Secretary Baker said he visited but one embarkation camp—that at Brest. "Its condition is simply ideal," he asserted, "and you can get the same expression from any doughboy on this ship. I did not see any of the others but am informed that the same good condition prevails at all."

Ministers Oppose Willard-Dempsey Fight in Ohio

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 5.—The Toledo Ministerial Union, composed of 150 pastors of churches in this district, at a mass meeting today, protested against holding the Willard-Dempsey fight here on July 4. The union adopted a resolution condemning the fight as being in violation of state laws and those of humanity. It was resolved that every effort will be made to influence the governor to prohibit the fight and if necessary a delegation will be at the roadside to demand action by the county sheriff. The meeting of ministers was called after word came that Tex Rickard had decided upon Toledo as the site for the bout.

CINCINNATI PROTESTS
CINCINNATI, O., May 5.—Reports that the Willard-Dempsey boxing bout would be held in Toledo caused the Cincinnati Methodist ministers' association this afternoon to pass resolutions of protest against holding the affair in Ohio or in any other state. The resolutions will be sent to a ministers' association of every county in Ohio, it was announced.
